Farhaneh Haque is the Director of Mortgage Advice with TD Canada Trust, a leader in Residential Real Estate Mortgages and Lines of Credit. With over 16 years of lending experience, Farhaneh, provides mortgage advice and tools to help Canadians make informed decisions when it comes to Home Financing.

“Home ownership is the biggest investment that Canadians will make in their lifetime, and can be a daunting task,” says Farhaneh. “At TD we work hard to make the dream of home ownership a reality, while ensuring that the process is a comfortable experience.”

In addition to providing advice, products and services for Canadians interested in financing a home, Farhaneh and her team have access to research commissioned by TD Canada Trust, which helps to understand current Canadian consumer attitudes and habits relating to a number of home ownership topics, from choosing and buying a first home, to renovating and greening a home, to understanding gender, regional and other demographic preferences.

Farhaneh is an active member of community groups mandated with promoting Youth Education; in particular enabling High School Students in researching and accessing funding to pursue post secondary education.
